

Charles Bronitsky, Council Member
City of Foster City
Estero Municipal Improvement District
Board of Directors
Bay Area Water Supply & Conservation Agency

Charles Bronitsky was appointed by the Estero Municipal Improvement District (Foster City) to the Board of Directors of the Bay Area Water Supply and Conservation Agency in December 2011. The district provides water to the residents and businesses of the City of Foster City and part of the City of San Mateo.

Bronitsky was elected to the City Council in 2009 to a four-year term. He is a 12-year resident of Foster City, and has been a local real estate attorney for the past 25 years. His practice has focused primarily on real estate transactions and litigation, including construction litigation. He has represented some of the largest real estate developers in the country along with local contractors, subcontractors and property owners.

Bronitsky was the President of what is now known as the Wornick Day School in Foster City from 1996 through 1998. He was also on the Board of Directors of the Bureau of Jewish Education in San Francisco during that same time period.

Bronitsky became a member of the Rotary Club of Foster City in 2001, was Treasurer in 2004-2005, President in 2010-2011 and is currently an Assistant Governor for the Rotary District 5150 encompassing San Mateo, San Francisco and Marin Counties. Bronitsky is also a member of the Rotary Club's "Ollieque" crew and is often seen cooking at local events to raise money for Foster City causes.

Bronitsky served on the Foster City Planning Commission for 3 ½ years, from 2006 through 2009, including a year as its Chairman in 2008-2009.

Bronitsky is a graduate of the University of California, Berkeley with both a Bachelor of Arts Degree and a Juris Doctor degree. Bronitsky considers Foster City to be "Paradise on Earth" and feels that it is an honor to work for Foster City as a Council Member.
