

Daniel Quigg, Council Member
City of Millbrae
Board of Directors
Bay Area Water Supply & Conservation Agency

Daniel F. Quigg was appointed by the City of Millbrae to the Board of Directors of the Bay Area Water Supply and Conservation Agency in January 2008. Millbrae owns and operates its own water utility, serving residential, commercial and light industrial customers, as well as Capuchino High School in San Bruno.

Mr. Quigg was elected back to the City Council in 2007 after leaving the Council in 2005 due to term limits. He previously served on the City Council from 1993-2005. He served as Mayor of Millbrae in 1996-97 and 1999-2000. He was elected Millbrae City Treasurer in 1980 and served through 1993.

He is a member of the County's Congestion Management/Air Quality Committee and Regional Housing Needs Assessment Committee, and is a member of the board of directors of the Bay Area Water Supply & Conservation Agency. Mr. Quigg is the Council's liaison to the Millbrae Chamber of Commerce.

He has lived in Millbrae for over 30 years with his wife, and owns and operates a small business in the community. His areas of interest are economic development, youth and senior activities, and citizen involvement.
