

Jim Griffith, Council Member
City of Sunnyvale
Board of Directors
Bay Area Water Supply & Conservation Agency

Jim Griffith was appointed by the City of Sunnyvale to the Board of Directors of the Bay Area Water Supply and Conservation Agency in 2011. The city provides water to its urban industrial and residential customers. California Water Service Company also serves several small areas within the city.

Griffith has been a resident of Sunnyvale for over 20 years, and was elected to the City Council in 2010.

Currently, Griffith serves on the Executive Board and Board of Directors for the Cities Association of Santa Clara County. He serves as Vice-Chair of the Silicon Valley Library System/Pacific Library Partnership and is a member of the Santa Clara County Recycling and Waste Reduction Commission.

Griffith served on the Policy Advisory Committee of Valley Transportation Authority, and the Grand Boulevard Task Force. He was Chair of the Library Board of Trustees for the City of Sunnyvale Library from 2005-2009, and was their legislative representative for four years.

Griffith's community involvement includes a lifetime membership with the Sunnyvale Historical Society, and Western Philatelic Library. He is a member of the Board of Directors for the Danbury Place Home Association, and served on the Board of Directors for Silicon Valley Leadership in 2008-2009. Griffith was a member of numerous notable committees for the City of Sunnyvale

Griffith is Senior iOS Software Engineer for Apple, Inc. He earned his BA in Mathematics applied to Computer Science Graduate from UC Berkeley. Griffith is a Bay Area Native who enjoys literature, philately and soccer.