- 1) Would a suite of training videos be an effective tool for member agencies to have as a user guide?

Yes, training videos could be an option for user training in lieu of or in conjunction with a written user guide.

- 2) Can BAWSCA provide a list of potential stakeholders or an approximate number of stakeholder entities that would be involved in the project?

BAWSCA anticipates that up to 15 stakeholder groups will be involved in the project. The specific stakeholder groups will be identified at the onset of the project.
